

Helen Halverson Dies Monday

Funeral Services To Be in Oldham

Mrs. Helen Halverson, 91, died Monday in Sioux Valley hospital, Sioux Falls, where she had been confined since breaking her hip on Dec. 13, 1958.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. Wednesday in Oldham Lutheran church. Rev. Morris Uring will officiate.

Burial will be in Oldham cemetery directed by Haltenbeck Funeral home.

Mrs. Halverson was born March 3, 1868, in Jackson, Minn. She was married to Mrs. Halverson Lars Halverson in Jackson, Jan. 14, 1893. The couple moved to a farm in Wayne township where Mr. Halverson had been homesteading. Mr. Halverson died Jan. 11, 1917. Mrs. Halverson lived on the farm for many years. She moved to Madison recently where she lived for a few years before moving to Sioux Falls.

She is survived by six sons, Henry and Cyrus, Trent; Edwin, Madison; Carl, Watertown; Alfred, North Branch, Minn., and Lloyd, Ramona; two daughters, Mrs. J. C. Houske, Sioux Falls, and Mrs. Robert Lee, North Branch, Minn.; 12 grandchildren; 7 great grandchildren.