

Mrs. Cora Cady Passes Tuesday

Mrs. Burt (Cora) Cady, a lifetime resident of Jackson County, died at Halloran Hospital Tuesday following gradual failing health for many months.

Friends may call at Krause Funeral Home until 12 noon Thursday. The body will then lie in state at First Presbyterian Church from 1 to 2 p. m., the hour of service. Rev. A. J. Yunker will be officiating clergyman. Music will be furnished by Wallace Engelbrekt with Mrs. Hunter Gillespie at the organ.

Family friends will bear the casket. They are John Seim, Edwill Muir, Harry Moore, George Rieken, August Benjamin and George Ludvigsen. Burial will take place in Riverside Cemetery.

Cora Leach, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Backin Leach, was born Oct. 13, 1883, at Elkhart, Ill., and came with her parents to Des Moines Twp. at an early age. She has lived in the Jackson vicinity most of her life, except for occasional trips to visit relatives. She was married to Burt Cady at Windom March 3, 1903, and to this union four children were born. One son died in infancy. Her living children who were all present for the last rites are Mrs. LeRoy (Alice) Koch of Austin, Earl R. of Jackson and Lowell of Lima, Ohio. Other survivors are six grandchildren, seven great-grandchildren, two sisters, and one brother. Her husband died in January, 1946.

Mrs. Cady was a member of First Presbyterian Church, Royal Neighbors and Woman's Relief Corps. She was interested in activities of
